1. Some older students of the TPD (Child Welfare Society) school, formerly Zimowski Gymnasium, Tylina Street, Lodz recently entered the building at night and tore down pictures of Communist leaders. The operation was planned by an anti-Communist student organization. Many students were arrested and interrogated. The local radio broadcasted warnings and appeals for order in the student community.
2. This student raid antedates the East Berlin uprisings, therefore it probably was an independent and spontaneous demonstration of unrest in Poland.
